EXCO22 international exhibition

As every year in December, we invite you to visit the EXCO22 International Exhibition - Research in Construction Engineering.

The initiator of the entire project is Dr. José R. Albuquer-que, Vice-Dean of the Faculty of Structural Engineering (ETSIE) of the Universitat Politècnica de València. This year, the exhibition was presented at several partner universities, including the United States, Cuba, Italy and Turkey.

At the Faculty of Civil Engineering of the Silesian University of Technology, posters are presented in the hall on the second floor. All works are divided into seven thematic groups: Economy, Environment, Neural Engineering, Heritage, Technology, Town Planning, Human Resources, and access to individual works is possible via QR codes.
