EXCO_UNISA 2022 05-16 December 2022

Inauguration Monday 5 December at 9.00, at the Laboratory T26 - Building E

Since 2018, the University of Salerno, with the Department of Civil Engineering, has been present among the academic institutions involved in the EXCO International Exhibition, the annual international construction review, an opportunity to disseminate scientific research products, developed in the field of structural issues, technological, urban planning, economic, environmental, construction industry.

This membership is the result of the fruitful relationships maintained by the DICIV Technical Architecture group with the Polytechnic University of Valencia, relationships characterized by frequent cultural, scientific and educational exchanges, both outgoing and incoming, hosting colleagues from the Escuela Técnica Superior de Ingeniería de Edificación such as Luis Palmero Iglesias, Elena Navarro-Astor, Andrea Salandin, José Ramón Albiol-Ibáñez (Director of EXCO).

The traveling exhibition event will stop at the University of Salerno, in the period 05-16 December 2022, through the display of the representative panels at the T26 Laboratory - Building E.
